A refugee, generally speaking, is a displaced person who has been forced to cross national boundaries and who cannot return home safely (for more detail see legal definition). Such a person may be called an asylum seeker until granted refugee status by the contracting state or the UNHCR if they formally make a claim for asylum. The lead international agency coordinating refugee protection is ...

A: The two witnesses come up DURING the Tribulation. They are destined to go through it, not be lifted out of it. They are most certainly Jews. They are given supernatural powers by God until they are killed, and then they make the news by raising up from the dead, live, in front of CNN and FOX cameras.
